

Jane DeFrank ★ Active Adult Of The Month

Jane is a familiar face to many around the Chino Hills Community Center. She is the current Interim President of the Chino Hills 55+ Club and enjoys participating in City events. Jane keeps herself very busy by spending time with her husband George, daughter Lisa, and three granddaughters. Her two dogs, Zelda and Zara, are certified therapy animals and have competed in obedience events! Jane also enjoys traveling to far off destinations, especially Europe, and visiting museums. She is extremely creative and currently leads both the Scrapbooking and Crafts Special Interest Groups at the Community Center. We love seeing everything she comes up with!

Jane is helpful in so many ways, and always has excellent advice and insight. We all enjoy laughing with her and appreciate all the ideas and tips she offers. Congratulations Jane!
