CHINO HILLS 55+ CLUB

Time to trot out those boots and hats again as we celebrate cowboys in honor of National Day of the Cowboy and our Club's sixth anniversary.

Our speaker today will be Michael Winn, of U.S. Bank, who will address senior financial abuse.

Hope you renewed your membership. If you missed the June 30 deadline, you can still make a late dues payment today.

To celebrate our cowboys, we're having a BBQ with hotdogs, beans, salads, cake, and a drink for $4 after our meeting today.

Recaps

A group of twenty-plus spent the day touring March Air

Reserve Base in Riverside, Wednesday, July 10. They saw the MQ-9 drone, toured a C-17 and KC-135, lunched at the Hap Arnold Club, saw an explosive ordnance device (EOD) demo and a firetruck water demo at the MARB Fire Station after a tour of the facility. Excellent day.

Another group spent the evening at the Quakes baseball game vs. San

Jose at LoanMart

Field in Rancho Cucamonga, Friday, July 12. Quakes won!

Next Meeting is August 23, 2019

Next month's meeting will celebrate Tell a Joke and Bad Poetry Day. Get ready to laugh and hear some sorry rhymes!

There once was a cowboy named Joe,
Who rode a pale horse named Bill.
They rode in the sand; they rode high and low –
Now they're sunburned and over the hill.
