CHINO HILLS 55+ CLUB

So much to like about December...cool temps, parties, celebrations, gifts, friendships, family, good food and good times, and Christmas! Today we're celebrating those ugly sweaters you've received over the years. If you had one of those sad puppies tossed in the closet or maybe you have a real dog, hope you pulled it out today. We'll have a sweater walk and choose our winner!

Hunter Felde, a Michael Jackson tribute dancer, will entertain us today in a return performance.

Congratulations are due to one of our Club members, Renée Sylvia. In the recent Chino Hills/Chino Hills Community Foundation (Chino Hills Arts Committee [chARTS]) Photo Contest, Renée's photo of two of her grandchildren (Charlotte and Dayton) playing on a slide at Pinehurst Hills Park received an honorable mention; Renée received a Chino Hills tote bag. That photo, titled "Sunday Sliding," is hanging in the CHCC lobby. Be sure to find it before you leave the building today. Way to go, Renée!

Lunch today will be at Roscoe's Famous Deli. Hope you can join us.

Upcoming Elections

Just an FYI that our elections for the open positions of Vice President and Secretary are coming up in February. Your nominations committee will be contacting you via email, or phone if you have no email, for your input and/or interest in running for either of these positions. Watch for the email, think about the positions, and consider giving some of your time to the Club to make us even better. You won't regret it.

Next Meeting is January 24, 2020

Next month's meeting will rally around the Super Bowl. Pull out those team jerseys! Also in our tradition, we'll have our annual soup potluck. Get ready for some comfort food to go with Super Bowl 54.
