Take a Moment to be Proud

The Chino Hills Military Service Monument Dedication Ceremony and Unveiling was held Saturday,

January 18, at the CHCC. So many in the Club donated time or funds or both to this awesome monument. The dedication was well attended and moving for more than one at the podium and in the crowd. The Club's role in this outstanding achievement will be long remembered.

Congratulations to the veterans group, the Board, and the Club for your support and participation. We should all be proud. You're welcome, Chino Hills.
